Subject: South Lakeland Land Allocations - Further Consultation

Dear Sir / Madam,
South Lakeland Land Allocations - Further Consultation
Thank you for your response to the Land Allocations emerging options consultation in which you appear to have suggested one or more alternative sites to those suggested for allocation by the District Council. The Council is in the process of refining and developing site options. The consideration of alternative sites forms part of this process and as part of this process we need to know what people and communities think about alternative sites. South Lakeland District Council therefore intends to undertake further public consultation shortly on alternative sites suggested by respondents in the recent consultation on Emerging Options, January to April 2011. For this consultation we will produce lists and maps of the suggested alternative sites (grouped by settlement), together with names of those who have suggested them. A draft list of all of alternative sites and those who have suggested them are on the website for you to check at www.southlakeland.gov.uk/landallocations If you require a paper map and list please let us know. If our list and map record need amending in any way, or you did not intend your representation to suggest the allocation of an alternative site, please let us know by emailing developmentplans@southlakeland.gov.uk or telephoning 01539 717490. The current intention is to commence consultation on Friday 29 July so we would appreciate you contacting us, if necessary, as soon as possible.

Yours sincerely
